PREFACE

Although the manuscripts from which the following pages are printed have no name attatched, they are in the handwriting of Nathaniel Goodwin, of Hartford, Conn, who it is supposed made the journey's at the dates mentioned.

The manuscripts are printed with the hope they may prove of value to some one interested in the history of the past.

Nathaniel Goodwin was born in Hartford, Connecticut, March 5, 1782 In his youth he learned the printers trade, he also taught school and was a land-surveyor. He was treasurer of the city of Hartford for a number of years. He became interested in the subject of genealogy and collected material for family histories which have been published. He died at Hartford, May 29, 1855.

A Journey From Hartford To Niagara Falls In 1828.

Monday night, 12 o'clock reached Pittsfield, — company in the stage — a young lady and gentleman, bound to Ohio, and a lady with an infant child to Pittsfield.

Tuesday, 26. Lebonon Springs to breakfast, took in at the Springs, a gentleman his wife and 2 daughters for Albany, Reached Albany at 2 P. M.

Wednesday 27. went to Schenectady, dined there, took the packet boat after dinner for Utica. Thursday 28, about 3 P. M. took tea at Canal coffee house, a great company at table, and left at 7 P. M At 12 at night came on board 2 stage loads of passengers from Utica, amongst them Mr. Peck, Mrs. Peck and Miss Barnes, for Rochester.

Saturday 30, 4 o'clock left the boat at Pittsford a few miles out of Rochester. Stop't at Acres inn, where tarried during the Sabbath 31 st. Sunday evening were called for by Judge Barnard of Mendon.

Spent Monday 1st. Sept. with him and family, and on Tuesday the 2d, about 11 accompanied by Mr. & Mrs. Barnard took a packet boat at Pittsford, and proceeded west. Reached Rochester in the evening of the same day,

Wednesday 3d, 12 at night reached Buffalo. Thursday morning 4th went to Eagle tavern, tarried to breakfast and dinner, afternoon rode to Niagara Falls and took lodgngs at Forsyth's at 7 evening. Present: parties from New York, Canada and Washington City. Mr. Wirt and 2 daughters, Friday 5th visited the deep cut in the Welland canal. Viewed the falls, went to the American side, on to Goat Island. paper mill, bones of the natives, impression of a bears foot on a stone.

Saturday 6th, Left Forsyth's for Lockport passed in sight of the ground on which was fought the battle of Niagara Qeenstown, Brock's monument, crossed the Niagara at Queenstown, reached Lockport to dine. Had for stage company a Mr. Williams of Pennsylvania.

Left Judge Barnard and wife at Lockport and proceeded east in the Cana packet at about 2 P. M.

Sunday morning about 7 o'clock reached Rochester, where spent the Sabbath, attended the Episcopal Church, staid at the Rochester House, kept by Mr. Noyse formerly of Stonington, Conn. D. D.
